MATTAPOISETT ELECTION

George S. White, chairman of the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen, was returned to office by Mattapoisett voters in the town election. Mr. White, who has served on the Board continuously since 1948, polled 586 votes, defeating Harold Vokes, chairman of the Mattapoisett Finance Committee. Mr. Vokes made his second bid for the office of Selectmen and received 524 votes.

In the contest for Mattapoisett School Committee, Marshall W. Ross was elected with a total of 425 votes. Vera C. Gibbons received 393 votes and William B. Keavy polled 291.

The three-way race for Old Rochester School Committee elected Marshall M. Sawyer with 428 votes. Harry M. Locke received 391 votes and Ralph V. Moore received 268.

Uncontested town offices were as follows: Helen G. Tinkham, Town Clerk, 987; Allen L. Sherman, Treasurer and Tax Collector, 928; Enoch L. Winslow, assessor, 913; Ira. R. Hiller, 2nd, trustee Mattapoisett Library, 929; Berthold Putman, moderator, 929; Roscoe E. Barstow, water commissioner, 934; Stanley J. Mysliwy, Board of Health, 934; Manuel R. GRANGE MEETING

Mattapoisett Grange held its bi-monthly meeting last Thursday night. Reports were given by Mrs. Otto Kellish, relief chairman, on flowers that had been placed in the Congregational Church in memory of Frederick Manning and Ralph Dunn. She also had a card circulating among the members for their signatures to be sent to Past Master William H. Winslow.

Emma Atkinson, chairman for the Conservation Committee, read the rules for the various contests in the State Grange such as essays on any phase of conservation and natural resources of 500 words or less, scrapbooks of mounted leaves

Home and Community Service chairman, Ruby Barber, reported on her sale of boxes of cards, and the card party for the painting fund. She also reported on the Home and Community Service Night at the Junior Grange.

A report of the annual Fair committee meeting held recently at the home of the chairman, Leonard Randall, was given by Otto Kellish, co-chairman. The premium list for the Fair awards was partly revised and the Fair date set for August 28th.

Under special committees the resolutions for Frederick Manning were read by Ruth Shaw, Albert Pemberton and Emma Atkinson. The resolutions for Ralph C. Dunn were read by Jennie Toolis, Lemuel LeBaron and Joseph Furtado. Copies will be sent to the family and copies will be spread upon the Grange records.

The lecturer's program was a motion picture in full color and sound on the Heritage of Flavor, shown through the courtesy of Ocean Spray Cranberry Company of Hanson, Mass. During the lecturer's hour, cranberry juice was served by Barry Denham, William Hinckley and Stephen Peckham. A game followed with several cans of cranberry sauce distributed among the members.

Refreshments of cookies and coffee were served by Albert Pemberton and Rebecca Downing. The

This committee will be assisted by Girl Scouts in carrying out the program.

Several leaders are planning to participate in a day of instruction in camping and outdoor skills on March 23 at Cedar Hill. Any registered adult Girl Scout who is interested in attending and has not already registered for this instruction, is asked to do so immediately by calling Mrs. Larcom.

Attention was called to National Girl Scout Week this week which is being marked by displays in the showcase at Center School and the Town Library.

Troop 49 is hard at work planning for the success of the lecture and films by Dr. Woodrow Wilson Sayre entitled "Four Against Everest" to be presented April 9 at 8 P.M. in the auditorium at the Old Rochester High School. Sponsor tickets are still available and regular admissions will go on sale next week, and may be obtained from any Cadette or Mrs. Donald Nahigyan, general chairman.

Plans were made to hold the next neighborhood meeting at Camp Metacomet on May 13. Directions and details will be furnished at a later date.

CUB SCOUT BANQUET

The Cub Scouts of the Mattapoisett Pack No. 53 held their annual Blue and Gold banquet Saturday night, March 6th, in the Congregational Church parish hall. The tables were decorated with Cub themes by centerpieces and place settings made by the individual dens. Chairman Edmund Hickey presided at the head table.

The opening prayer was given by the Rev. Frederic Reynard, pastor at the Congregational Church, Mattapoisett. Presentation of colors was done by Mark Harris, Mark Breton, Ralph Staples and William Simpson.

At the head table with the chairman were the Rev. Reynard, Fr. John Sullivan of St. Anthony's Church, Berthold Putman, South District Committee chairman representing Cachalot Council; Mr. and Mrs. John Pagenkopf, representing Scout Troop 53; and Cubmaster Charles Figueiredo.

Eight new Bobcats were introduced to the pack and shown what it takes to make a Cub Scout and what is required by the Cub Master, assisted by Alan Hickey, Richard Helfand and Ricky Pursley.

New Bobcats and their parents were presented their Bobcat pins, shoulder strips and Pack numerals. The boys are Ryan Fountain, Thomas O' Leary, James Livesey, Thomas Sheets, James Pasbrig, David Texeira, Joseph Carson and Paul Brown.

Wolf badges were presented by appropriate ceremonies to Kevin Regan, Jeffrey Clymer, James Horan, Peter Horan, Paul Gingras, James Simpson, Kevin O'Leary, Thomas O'Leary, Paul Empey, Ricky Norman and Neil Sylvia, with the last three each earning one gold and one silver arrow on the wolf.

Bear badges were presented to John Alves with a silver arrow on the wolf and a one-year service star; Paul Bradley, Mark Faber and Raymond Silviera, with 1 gold and 1 silver arrow; Charles
